

How to Subscribe to the OhioERC Blog

The Ohio Electronic Records Committee (OhioERC) identifies best practices and develops resources concerning the creation, maintenance, long-term preservation and access to the electronic records of Ohio's public entities. One of the primary goals of the OhioERC is to ensure that its work results in a practical, implementable policy for agency electronic records in Ohio. The OhioERC Blog has been created to inform, as well as update, the public about the Ohio Electronic Records Committee and its work. Blog subscribers will receive the latest updates as they are published. To subscribe, please follow these instructions:

1. Go to <http://ohioerc.org/>
2. On the right side, look for the "Follow OhioERC!" box. Enter your email address in the space provided and click "Subscribe."

The screenshot shows the OhioERC website header with the logo and mission statement: "...IDENTIFYING BEST PRACTICES AND DEVELOPING RESOURCES CONCERNING THE CREATION, MAINTENANCE, LONG-TERM PRESERVATION, AND ACCESS TO THE ELECTRONIC RECORDS OF OHIO'S PUBLIC ENTITIES." Below the header is a navigation menu with items: About OhioERC, Guidelines & Tips, Meetings, Committees, Resources, Calendar, Workshops, and a search icon. The main content area features a post titled "OhioERC Meeting Dates for 2019" by Pari Swift, dated December 28, 2018. The post text states: "The OhioERC has set its meeting dates for 2019:" followed by a list of dates: Wednesday, January 9, 2019 (3rd Floor Cardinal Classroom); Wednesday, April 10, 2019 (3rd Floor Cardinal Classroom); and Wednesday, July 10, 2019 (3rd Floor Cardinal Classroom). On the right side of the page, there is a "Search ..." box and a "Follow OhioERC!" box, which is circled in red. The "Follow OhioERC!" box contains the text "Subscribe to OhioERC.org by Email". Below this is a "Categories" section with links for "Announcements" and "Guidelines".

3. The system should send you an email with a link to activate your subscription. Log in to the email address you provided and click on the activation link provided in the email.
4. Congratulations! You have subscribed to the OhioERC Blog!
